

Daniel E. Holland III

Dan Holland is a managing director in the Investment Management Division in Boston, where he serves as region head for the firm's Private Wealth Management (PWM) business in New England. Previously, he had responsibility for the Global Securities Services (GSS) business in the Boston region, responsible for Prime Brokerage, Capital Introduction and Relationship Management with hedge fund clients. Before that, he was co-manager of Prime Brokerage Sales in New York and managed Fixed Income Prime Brokerage.

Prior to joining GSS in 2001, Dan was in the Fixed Income, Currency and Commodities (FICC) Division, where he headed the Institutional Client Services, Dealer Sales and PWM Sales trading teams. From 1999 to 2000, he was chief operating officer of FICC North American Sales. Dan joined Goldman Sachs in 1987 as a Fixed Income Sales generalist in Boston. He became co-resident manager of the Boston office and head of FICC in Boston in 1997. Dan was named managing director in 1999.

Dan served in the U.S. Navy as lieutenant, surface warfare officer from 1981 to 1985 and in the U.S. Naval Reserve as an intelligence officer from 1986 to 1990.

Dan earned an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania in 1987 and a BA in Economics from Boston College in 1979. He serves on the board of the New England Center for Homeless Veterans and is on the advisory boards of both the Boston College CaiToll School of Management and the Center for Asset Management at Boston College.

Dan and his wife, Deborah, have four children and live in Sherborn, Massachusetts.