

Daniel P. Quigley

Daniel is majority owner and President of SGL/ARCRITE Automation, a robotic systems design, fabrication and integration business focused on industrial applications. He is also President of Mowhawk Ventrues a family office focused on investing in early stage ventures and real estate development. Daniel also serves as a board member/advisor for most portfolio investments.