

Rear Admiral Julius S. Caesar, USN (Ret.)

Rear Admiral Julius S. Caesar, USN (Ret.) is a career Surface Warfare Officer who graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy. He earned a Master of Business Administration from The College of William & Mary. He is a Massachusetts Institute of Technology Seminar XXI Fellow in Foreign Politics, International Relations, and the National Interest. He attended the Naval War College Reserve Officer Strategy and Policy Course in Newport, R.I. Caesar has a distinguished career in the military and industry. He has served as a Chief Operating Officer, Sector Vice President, Senior Vice President and General Manager in public and privately held technology firms.

Board Experience:

Trustee Emeritus and Trustee. Naval War College Foundation, 501(c) (3), Newport, RI: Trustee (2010–2016); Trustee Emeritus: (2016- Present) NWCF Benefactor Award; Admiral Joel R.P. Pringle Society, Chair, Strategic Planning Committee, Executive Committee Member. Member, Cyber Committee. Led organization of Cyber Symposium in Washington, DC including members from Congress, Academia, and industry. Supported 2020 NWCF San Francisco event.

President & Executive Director, US Naval Academy Minority Association (NAMA) 501(c)3. NAMA's mission is to develop the next generation of leaders & warfighters through recruiting in underserved secondary schools, retaining Midshipmen, mentoring and creating a network for Navy & USMC officers, outreach to community organizations, and philanthropy. NAMA is a multi-cultural organization and supports all Naval Academy affinity groups and the Superintendent's priorities.

CVN-81 Ship Naming Panel. 1 of 4 panel members selected by Secretary of the Navy (Acting) to name CVN-81 for Mess Attendant Doris Miller USN, WWII African-American hero. Conducted research and gained support for naming an aircraft carrier for a WWII African-American hero who represents the Total Force.

Naval Academy Alumni Association Special Committee Member: (June 2020-January 2021): Handpicked by the Chairman, Naval Academy Board of Trustees and CEO to conduct findings and recommendations on improving inclusion and diversity after an alumni broadcast insensitive comments on social media in the aftermath of the George Floyd tragedy. The incident represented a major crisis requiring swift action as it was reported on major news networks globally reflecting negatively on the Navy and Alumni Association.

Trustee, Naval Academy Alumni Association & Foundation (AS&P) (2010-Present); Annapolis, MD

Vice Chairman, Policy Review Committee. Member, Executive Committee. Key leader responsible for addressing oversight and policy matters from Governance, Finance, Membership, and Communications. AS&P supports the physical mission of the Naval Academy and provide scholarships to students to attend private preparatory schools as part of the athletic and scholarship program. Chairman, Awards Committee.

Advisory Board, Academy Securities, La Jolla, CA, (2015 – Present): Strategic Advisor: Academy Securities is an investment bank specializing in equity and debt, capital markets, public finance, institutional agency trading, equity and fixed income. I provide geo-political insight, risk management, and identify potential clients. Academy Securities is a Service-Disabled Veteran Owned Business. 44% of employees are military veterans.

Advisory Board, AtHoc, San Mateo, CA, acquired by Blackberry. (2012-2016); Strategic Advisor
A fast growing Silicon Valley technology company that was backed by Greylock Partners, a venture capital firm. AtHoc, is a leading pioneer and provider of secure, networked crisis communications. Firm experienced rapid growth and customer loyalty. Supported CEO and management team in assessing risks in market strategy and technology.

Additional Board Experience

Member, Secretary of Defense Reserve Forces Policy Board (2008-2011)
National Association of Corporate Directors (NACD); Governance Fellow: Recently attended an NACD “Sharpening Your Sword” seminar on “Applying your Military Crisis Skills to the Boardroom”.

Work Experience

August 2019-Present: Full-time technology executive at NetApp, a $6 billion, Fortune 500, global leader in hybrid cloud data services, artificial intelligence and primary data storage
April 2013-July 2019; COO, Addx Corporation. A technology, professional services business.
October 2011– March 2013. InoMedic Health Applications. EVP/COO. Delivered medical services to NASA. June 1977-September 2011 – Officer, U.S. Navy/U.S. Navy Reserve. 34 years of service. Retired as Rear Admiral (O-8)

Education

The College of William & Mary, Masters of Business Administration (MBA)
U.S. Naval Academy, Bachelor of Science (Operations Research)