THIRD ANNUAL NAVAL WAR COLLEGE FOUNDATION

NEWPORT OPEN

Dear Members and Friends,

The Naval War College Foundation (NWCF) is thrilled to invite you to partner with us for the upcoming Third Annual Newport Open, scheduled to take place on Monday, June 2, at the beautiful Newport Country Club. This exciting event will bring together local professionals, U.S. Naval War College (USNWC) alumni, community leaders, and golf enthusiasts for a day of sport, networking, and philanthropy.

This exclusive event is an opportunity to introduce patriotic individuals in the region to the importance of the USNWC and its role in informing our Nation's decision-makers. The College, a pillar of America's national security and that of our partners and allies worldwide, is an asset to the community here in Rhode Island.

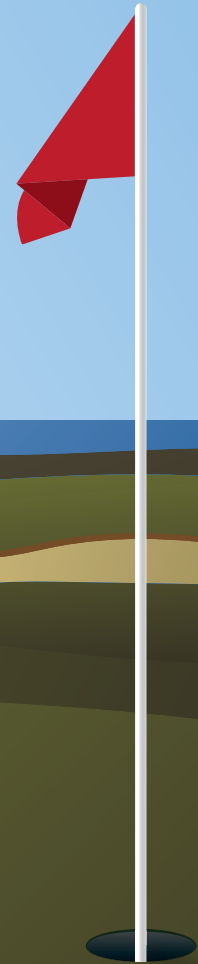

For over five decades, the NWCF has supported the USNWC as the center of excellence for joint professional military education. More than 300 graduates of the USNWC currently serve as active-duty admirals, generals, and senior executive service leaders. As a sponsor of the Newport Open, you will positively impact various initiatives at the College, including faculty research, student awards, capital improvements, and symposia.

Thank you in advance for considering the NWCF and our mission to enhance the USNWC and sustain it for years to come.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'G. E. Lang, Jr.', is placed below the word 'Sincerely,'.

CAPT George E. Lang, Jr., USN (Ret.)
President and Chief Executive Officer

About the U.S. Naval War College

Established in 1884 in Newport, Rhode Island, the U.S. Naval War College (USNWC) is the oldest defense college of its kind in the world. As the U.S. Navy's "Home of Thought," the College offers a course of advanced professional study for naval and joint service officers and civilian agency leaders as well as international military officers from allied and partner nations. Students earn Joint Professional Military Education (JPME) credit and either a diploma or a master's degree in National Security and Strategic Studies. About 300 of today's active-duty admirals, generals, and senior executive service leaders are USNWC alumni. The College currently employs over 600 dedicated staff and faculty. For more information, please visit usnwc.edu.

About the Naval War College Foundation

The Naval War College Foundation was created in 1969 by forward-looking, community-minded, philanthropic individuals whose goals were to enhance and enrich the educational excellence and experience of the USNWC. Strengthened by our very patriotic and generous members, the Foundation continues to support the advancement of USNWC priorities, including research and scholarship, curriculum and instruction, endowed chairs, capital improvements, faculty and student academic achievement awards, conferences and symposia, and regional international studies.
